4.5 Verified divergence of dates for the beginning and end of activities in the documents presented – schedule of activities, manifestations of the institutions involved or any other documents – GCE and CAPES may reject the application at any time, based on documentary inconsistency.

4.6 Also, regarding the divergence of the dates, if there is a request for reconsideration of the rejection decision or if the applicant, in a timely manner, submits clarifications, the committee may review the decision and arbitrate the period more consistent with the documents presented and compatible with the duration of the scholarship and the demand for which the candidate applied.

- 4.7 Additional documents and information may be requested by Fiocruz or CAPES, at any time, for better instruction of the process and implementation of the scholarship.
- 4.8 All communications under this Notice will be made through the email address informed by the proponent professor at the time of registration.

5. SELECTION

- 5.1 The selection will be ruled by this Call and executed by the General Coordination of Education, with the support of the Project Coordinators of PrInt-Fiocruz- CAPES Program.
- 5.2 The evaluation committee will be composed of project coordinators from each of the PrInt-Fiocruz- CAPES Program Networks, research, or Ad Hoc evaluators, at the discretion of the General Coordination of Education.
- 5.3 All stages of the Selection will be published on the PrInt Fiocruz CAPES Program website and the proponents will be officially communicated by e-mail.
- 5.4 The evaluation process of the proposals will consist of 3 (three) stages, as described below:

- a) Documentary analysis is eliminatory;
- b) Analysis of the merits of the proposal will be eliminatory and classificatory;
- c) Final Classification.

5.5 Analysis and decision:

5.5.1 Technical/documentary analysis/approval of registrations:

- a) the candidate's requirements should be meet the expected date of selection;
- b) Adequacy of the documentation submitted by the candidate to the requirements of this Call;

5.5.2 Criteria for merit analysis:

- a) Scientific quality of the proposal and its potential results – Weight 2;
- b) Academic and scientific qualification of the Visiting Professor – Weight 2;
- c) Academic and scientific qualification of the proponent Professor – Weight 1;
- d) Scope/transversality of the proposal – Weight 1;

5.5.3 The final classification will be established in the descending order of grades, obtained by the sum of the points measured by the evaluators for each criterion described above, considering:

- 0 points - Unacceptable - incomplete or missing information.
- 1 point - Weak
- 2 points - Medium
- 3 points - Good
- 4 points - Very Good
- 5 points - Excellent

5.5.4 In the event of a tie, the points obtained in criterion "b", followed by the points in criteria "a", "c" and "d", will be used as a tiebreaker.

5.5.5 Priority will be given to the proponent professors who have CNPq Productivity Scholarships (PQ Scholarships). The provisions of this item refer to the prioritization of claim service, not to its exclusivity.

5.6 The proposal that does not reach an average of 21 (twenty-one) points in the evaluation, will have their applications rejected, even if not all vacancies are filled.

5.7 Priority will be given to the proposal that involves a country listed among the 70% for which we must allocate the funds, according to Appendix I of CAPES Notice (<https://www.gov.br/capes/pt-br/centrais-de-conteudo/02022018Edital412017Printalteracaoanexo1.pdf>).

5.8 The results of each selection stage will be published on the PrInt-Fiocruz CAPES website (<https://print.campusvirtual.fiocruz.br/>) and the proponent professors will be officially communicated, receiving instructions on the implementation of the scholarship by email.

Nov.7 to 18,2022	Jan. to Mar. 2023

Single paragraph: This Call was adapted to CAPES calendar, sent and disclosed by Circular Letter No. 16/2022-DRI/CAPES, of January 19, 2022. Please be advised that this calendar may be modified in order to adapt to the changes that CAPES may later make or even be suspended due to CAPES' decisions to cancel international mobility scholarships due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

7 IMPLEMENTATION OF THE SCHOLARSHIP WITH CAPES

- 7.1 After the selection and dissemination of the approved applications, the candidate must register with the SCBA/CAPES system (<http://scba.capes.gov.br/scba>) and the proponent professor must inform by email print.capes@fiocruz.br that the registration has been carried out or that the Professor already has the registration.
- 7.2 Only after receiving the completion of the registration in CAPES system, the GCE will register the candidates selected and approved in the Scholarship and Aid Control System (SCBA) of CAPES, according to the scholarship implementation schedule presented by CAPES.
- 7.3 After enrollment in CAPES, the process for scholarship is sole responsibility of the candidate, and the GCE cannot send messages or documents for resolution of problems or doubts.
- 7.4 All communications, after enrollment in CAPES, will be made by the candidate for scholarship with CAPES, through the Direct Line system (<http://linhadireta.capes.gov.br>).
- 7.5 In the absence of a manifestation of acceptance or refusal of the scholarship, the candidate for an approved scholarship will be considered a dropout and the grant for the scholarship will be canceled, after the period determined by CAPES.
- 7.6 The letter of concession and the Term of Grant and Acceptance of the Scholarship will be issued by CAPES upon receipt of a statement of acceptance of the scholarship.
- 7.7 Requests to change the data for the scholarship period must have the consent of the graduate program, the CGE and the PrInt Project Coordinator and will be analyzed by capes in order to verify the feasibility of implementing the change.
- 7.8 The receipt of the Term of Grant and Acceptance of the Scholarship does not guarantee the implementation of the scholarship. If there is inconsistency or irregularity in the documents and information presented, CAPES may cancel the concession, based on documentary inconsistency.
- 7.9 It will be forbidden to grant a scholarship to the approved candidate who is in default with CAPES or the Public Administration.
- 7.10 By signing the Term of Grant and Acceptance of the Scholarship, the candidate will agree to the commitments and obligations provided for, according to Ordinance No. 289, of December 28, 2018.
- 7.11 The scholarship will only be considered implemented after sending the Term of Grant and Acceptance of the Scholarship duly signed by the candidate.
- 7.12 The implementation of the scholarship must be carried out within the deadlines and standards established by CAPES.
- 7.13 The beginning of the Visiting Professor's activities should coincide with the period of academic activity.
- 7.14 During the period of stay in Brazil, the scholarship holder must be involved in academic activities.
- 7.15 It will be the sole responsibility of the scholarship holder to guarantee the appropriate and necessary visa for the entry and stay in Brazil for the period of performance of the activities.

- 7.16 The extension of the stay in Brazil that exceeds the granted period of the scholarship must be requested from CAPES and, when authorized, will occur at no cost to CAPES.
- 7.17 If the scholarship holder postpones the date of arrival in Brazil, it must be immediately notified to CAPES.
- 7.18 During the term of the PrInt Fiocruz-CAPES program, the proponent professor assumes the responsibility to send to the coordination of the PrInt-Fiocruz-CAPES program any publication and other products resulting from this mobility, in addition to making reference to the support received from CAPES in the works produced or published, in any media or languages, according to Ordinance No. 206, of September 4, 2018.

8 RETURN

- 8.1 After the return, the former scholarship holder must send all the necessary documents for the rendering of accounts (e.g. proof of boarding tickets, health insurance, activity report), via the SCBA system (<https://scba.capes.gov.br/>), so as not to be in default with CAPES.
- 8.2 The former scholarship holder's communications will remain through the Direct Line platform (<http://linhadireta.capes.gov.br>).
- 8.3 The former scholarship holder must inform CAPES if the results of the research or the final report itself will have commercial value or may lead to the development of a product or method involving the establishment of a patent.
- 8.4 All products, works produced, published from this mobility must mention CAPES in the acknowledgments and/or financial support and be informed by the proponent professor through email to print.capes@fiocruz.br.
- 8.5 The proponent professor must send to the email print.capes@fiocruz.br , within 30 (thirty) days after the completion of the Visiting Professor in Brazil, a report of the activities developed within the scope of the project in the Institution, containing a description of the courses, training, lectures or face-to-face seminars, the activities completed, number of participants and other results obtained, publication or products produced with IES, the activities completed and other results obtained.

9 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 9.1 It is not allowed, within the scope of this call, the replacement of the beneficiary of the scholarship or the transfer of the scholarship granted to another Visiting Professor in Brazil.
- 9.2 The candidate who does not have the application accepted may forward resources following the schedule stipulated in this notice. The resources will be analyzed by the respective committees and informed via the electronic mail of the proponent professor.
- 9.3 Omitted or exceptional cases will be reviewed by the PrInt Fiocruz group of coordinators (general coordinator and project coordinators).
- 9.4 At the discretion of the evaluation committee, with the approval of the General Coordination, it will be possible to relocate candidates between the networks in order to maximize/optimize the use of scholarships.

- 9.5 This call will follow the scholarship indication schedule available on the capes website and is therefore subject to modifications arising from changes in the opening dates of CAPES system.
- 9.6 It is forbidden to grant scholarships and benefits for those who are in default with CAPES or are included in any registrations of defaulters maintained by agencies of the Federal Public Administration.
- 9.7 After the selection and dissemination of the approved applications, CGE will register the selected and approved candidates in the Scholarship and Aid Control System (SCBA) of CAPES, according to the scholarship implementation schedule presented by CAPES.
- 9.8 Questions and requests for any further information should be sent to the email address: print.capes@fiocruz.br SUBJECT: Call No. 02/2022 - Visiting Professor in Brazil.
- 9.9 All communications, after enrollment in CAPES, will be made by the candidate through the Direct Line system (<http://linhadireta.capes.gov.br>).
- 9.10 Fiocruz and CAPES reserve the right, at any time, to request additional information or documents which they deem necessary.
- 9.11 Fiocruz is not responsible for suspension or contingency of scholarships made by CAPES that impact PrInt Fiocruz-CAPES Program, which may be suspended in case of resource containment.
- 9.12 In the event of irregularities after the concession, CAPES will cancel the scholarship and the request of reimbursement of the amounts paid, plus interest and monetary correction in accordance with the applicable legislation.
